CEFA-SEC®

Intramammary Suspension

Antibiotic infusion for dry cows

Formulation

Cephalexin monohydrate 20 mg, Neomycin sulphate 34 mg, Cloxacillin benzathine 50 mg, Vitamin A 1 000 IU, excipients q.s. ad 1 mL.

Indications

For the treatment of subclinical infections and in routinary prevention of mastitis in cattle at the beginning of the dry period. It is supplemented with vitamin A wich works as an epithelial regenerator of the mammary gland. The exclusive Duo Cap® system offers the possibility of a deep application or the administration near the nipple sphincter.

Dosage and Administration

Cattle: 1 syringe/quarter at the last milking of the lactation period. Apply through intrammamary infusion.

Commercial Presentation

Plastic container x 48 syringes of 10 mL.,

SENASA Registry

SENASA Perú: F.03.05.N.0620

Este contenido es una referencia informativa y no debe ser considerado como recomendaciones de uso.

Copyright © 2026 Agrovet Market S.A.